A PAGE FOR WOMEN AND THEIR INTERESTS

LOCAL CHAT:

HOME AND FASHION HINTS: RELIGIOUS AND OTHER ACTIVITIES:

THINGS FEMININE

PLEASING CHARACTER DOLLS FOR CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

will only exercise a little patience in Of course parents who do not "take"

two of the dolla pictured reproductions the educational doll will appeal to adof General George Washington and his vanced thinkers. So Santa Ck.us will lady. They are gowned in clothes have a brand new one of goods this with might have adorned the first Christman eve to story and on We presidentle! so us! affairs. The Sather wild the brand men character line.

working out the different costumes she to advanced notions about their chilwill have a clear conscience on Christ- dren's toys and the child's play hour mas morning when the kiddles receive will keep right on buying dolls that have not a shred of "character" to f Every one will instantly recognize in hang by, but one can easily see how daughtern of the President. There flag. are wonderful opportunities for in- Next to this White House wedding connection, for this is the very first greatest furore. time that there have ever been three daughters of a President all in the ingenue stage. There are few events which can

Will The New Administration Bring A White House Bribe?

White House which have for all the country at large, both men and wo men, the interest of a White House every woman in the country. Repub. mony in the Executive Mansion. lican as we are or Democratic it is this year-we still retain a good deal whom America can lay claim.

Every one admired her, she was the woven in the silk mills of Patterson. trimuphal progress through Europe by the bride herself. history of American young women cousin, Samuel L. Gouverneur. abroad.

Who'll be the next White House was the fashion for the bridegroom as well as the bride to carry bridal Will any of the three daughters of bouquets, and so to the elegant wedthe President-elect go down in history ding attire of Mr. Sartoris was added, as occupying this picturesque po as a crowning touch, his wedding bouquet of orange blossoms and Three young women will go into the tuberoses, with a center of pink buds White House next March as the from the middle of which arose a teresting events to take place in this that of Alice Roosevelt created the take place in connection with the had visited foreign lands in a much were many romantic stories about the heralded and much democracy, and in marriage, and picturesque rumors House to Mr. Nicholas Longworth, laid the gier est office to be won by marriage, and especially a marriage The ceremony took place in the East an America: " the feet of the beautwhose principal figure is a President's Room and the wedding guests great iful young won an as ancient victors

For weeks before the Roosevelt wedding the newspapers were full of wedding of the royal princess in and of the arrangements for the cerehave been who seemed particularly to stand to the people of this country in the relation of royal princesses. ing and American modistes with its man can pay. try in the relation of royal princesses. The development into a gown. Like the Presidents have been generous in two White House weddings, for in so blessed, and the great majority ing dry and tastless when cooked. nating "Nellie" Grant (Ellen Wren-) members of royal households abroad, lending the White House as a wed- addition to that of Lucy Payne Wash- must therefore turn to that blessed shall Grant), the charming daughter the bride-to-be felt it her duty to ding setting, and a number of nieces ington, who was Mrs. Madison's sis- substitute, the corset, which will of President Grant. Few genuine give the cachet of her approval to the and even friends of the Presidential ter, there was the wedding of Anna princesses have won the devotion of product of native workmen. The families have been married there, Todd, a cousin of Mrs. Madison. an entire people as did "Neilie" Grant. fabric for the famous gown was President Hayes niece, Emily Platt. The Blue Room has always been seted figure. The material that has able.

in the wake of her father's war | The two other President's daughters chariot and won for herself a suc- to be married in the White House cession of social and personal suc- were Elizabeth Tyler and Maria Moncesses such as were unequalled in the roe, who became the bride of her

Maria Monroe was the first Presi-Algernon C. P. Sartoris, the wedding White House. That was in 1820. In taking place in the East Room of the 1842 Elizabeth Tyler was married to ried to Alphonse Joseph Yver Pageot, of a romantic, speculative turn of without further explanation. White House. The wedding was a William Waller, of Williamsburg, Va. a French diplomat. most brilliant affair. In those days it Daniel Webster was a guest at this bursting into the grandiose aphorism: "Love rules the court, the camp, the grove, For love is heaven and heaven The name of Washington figured in wedding and is said to have astonished some of the others present by

White House wedding, which took place in 1811.

The most notable White House wedding rext to those of Miss Grant and Miss Roosevelt took place in June, 1886, when Miss Frances Folsom became the bride of President Cleveland. The wedding ceremony took place in the Blue Room and was a very quiet affair, but none the less it excited the greatest interest throughout the country because of the The careers of the two girls as extraordinary beauty of the bride and daughters of Presidents had been the great discrepancy in age between much alike, for Miss Roosevelt also herself and the bridegroom. There 1906 she was married in the White which declared that the President had ly outnumbered those previously were in the habit of placing their White House wedding appeals to gathered to witness any wedding cere- spoils at the feet of the fair they most when she becare a White House

> Martin, a cousin of the President, the other brides preferred the famous from $3 up. was married to Lewis Randolph Blue Room.

John Adams, the son of John Quin next?"

PRETTY SLIPPER ORNAMENTS

The girl who has more spare time edge so that they stand out from the siere, by the way, is often made of will also cook the tomato; serve on than money and is fond of fancy work satin after the manner of a picot edghas only to price the hand-made bows the beads are in direct contrast to sion of the corset, practically only a the first White House wedding, all the color of the satin. Steel or gold though the immortal General had no daughter to take the principal part in the matrimonial drama. Mrs. Lucy These delays to realize the hand the color of the satin. Steel or gold girdle. Below the waist the fiesh is firmly restrained as far as the knees, ways good and the revival of jet if so desired. One of the newest modified the principal part in the matrimonial drama. Mrs. Lucy These delays trimmings are good and the revival of jet if so desired. One of the newest modified the pulp a little water and press through a strainer. Add one and one-half cups if so desired. One of the newest modified pulp a little water and press through a strainer. Add one and one-half cups if so desired. One of the newest modified pulp a little water and press through a little water and press t Payne Washington, whose first husband was the nephew of our first pand was the heroine of the first found, or, if bought, costs so little With such a bow it is a novelty of in the line of the corset at the bot.

These dainty trimmings are so small for jet buckles and jetted bows on the tricot he knees. No danger the tricot with this with this with this property of the paste in lattice with this part of showing any break in the line of the corset at the bot. that it is easy to see that it is for the moment to have the tongue of the tom, which often ruins the effect of sible. Bake in a quick oven.

GERMAN HANS WITH DACHSHUND.

New York Sun writer. A tiny three beads makes a good center stone. looped bow, each loop showing an A Parisian novelty in black and of the papers. rows of the beads covered with sev- black and white striped satin, had a One of the most popular models has pan.-Chicago Inter-Ocean. eral rows of the beads sewed on in sharply upturning tongue of the only bones in the front, the necessary straight lines up and down. either curved or square, but in either seamed in a sharply pointed bias in there is only the tricot, stretched like fuls of ground almonds, three tablecase the bow should be set up a little the center of the tongue, the points the skin from the front to the back. spoonfuls of sugar, the grated rind on the instep and curve out prettil; turning up and accentuating the sauc- Some women prefer boning over the and strained juice of half a lemon, the in contrast to the flatness of a pump iness of the somewhat daring ar- hips. It is really only a matted of well-beaten yolks of four eggs, three bow. An expensive pair of white satin rangement. The foundation for the personal choice. slippers displayed this type of bow, buckle could be cut from buckram and. When the tricot corsets were first the whites of the eggs beaten stiffly the beading being done in jet and a the edge wired to curve slightly. ingle line of jet beads outlining the

Miss Folsom was only twenty-two and the beads are set on the extreme

President Madison presided over Comparatively few mondaines are mind are wondering, "Who'il be the There are various styles of these hol and place between two towels, stripped with fur. Ruche pieces to should make slipper ornaments. One ed ribbon. The effect is best when the waist but the very slight exten-

(ABOVE) PEASANT AND BELLE OF 1840

he workmanship that one pays. | slipper ornamented in corresponding a snug fitting dress. As this mate-In order to get just the right size of fashion. The tongue may be made rial clings snugly to the figure there bow the home copyist should experi- of satin over a buckram foundation. is none of the tightly corseted feel one-half cup of sugar, add one cup of ment with scraps of material, says a A large cabachou to match the small ing often so uncomfortable in the molasses and one teaspoon of hot wa-striped satin bound with plain brack stays to held the fastenings and two Rub four good-sized, cooked carrots The loops of the bows may be satin. The striped material was or three in the back. Over the hips through a sieve, add two tablesp of the old sentiment that clothes the the accounts of the bride's trousseau bride, and so great was the fame of cy Adams, the only Presidential son seted figure is the most fashionable relied upon to give the effect of the left over, chop it fine, mix it with her beauty and the romantic interest who had the honor of a White House figure of the day. The woman who uncorseted figure. In pretty pinks rice, put in butter, pepper and salt tradition of glory and romance. And mony. The wedding gown was a which it excited that wherever she wedding, in 1812 was married to his dares has already appeared at public and blues it takes on a decidedly and a mite of onions. This makes a the President's daughter is the near- much discussed subject, and all true went in public for a long time after cousin. Mary Helen. The ceremony, functions without the restraint of bridelike appearance, the bones, the delicate filling for stuffed, peppers, est relative to a royal princess to citizens breathed a sigh of satisfactory the marriage great crowds pursued which took place in the Blue Room, steel and bone. The woman who can few used, being incased in matching says the Montreal Star. Cut off the tion when it was announced that it her marriage gives crowds pursued which rook place in the Blue Room, steel and bone. The woman who can her in order to live a glimpse of the was, an elaborate affair for those thus mock at the contrivance of scill satin, with garters of the same. magical charm which had won for her days, when White House functions ence is indeed fortunate. Long may she glory in her possession!

most nearly reproduce the human fig- cuffs while sewed on the gown. Such ure and lend the effect of the uncor- things should always be made detach. ple cut into slices, two cloves and an was married there in 1878 to General the favorite for White House brides. | proved itself most available for this belle of the country, and she made a N. J., and the pattern was designed Russell Hastings, the ceremony being With the strange kinship which purpose is tricot, a sort of knitted performed in the Blue Room. In Prest seemed to draw them together in so cotton. When this material was first ident Jackson's administration Mary many things, Neilie Grant and Alice used for corsets the stays were very Easton, a niece of Mrs. Jackson, was Roosevelt both chose the East Room expensive. Today they are within married to Lucien B. Polk, and Emily for their wedding ceremonies, but all the reach of most purses, selling for

This tricot is a remarkably firm Delia Lewis, a friend of the family. With the coming Presidential re- fabric, yet possessing sufficient elas-In 1874 she married an Englishman, dent's daughter to be married in the was also a White House bride during gime there will be enough brides for ticity to give with every bend of the clean, white soap. During the pro- a pinch of salt the finishing touch. Jackson's Presidency. She was mar- all the rooms. And so it is that those body. That it is comfortable goes cess the ribbon must be kept corsets-some have the low busts. Press out with a hot droa.

fect uncorseted effect it is best to and set the tomatoes on a b ture to carry out the Parisian verdict Everybody knows that the uncor- of no corsets the tricot affair can be When you have a little beefsteak proved if larded; this prevents it be- shape.

To remove the leather stains from light-colored stockings, put a couple of tablespoonfuls of borax in the water in which they are washed.

hol and rub over the spot with some a half. A squeeze of lemon juice and double boiler with the boiling water, and boll five Add one cupful of tomato pure half teaspoonful of salt and o double boiler, without stirring. the rice is soft, then add half a ful of grated cheese. Stir with work and serve as soon as the ch is melted.-Good Housekeeping.

EGGS IN TOMATO. Cut a small round plece from top of round, ripe tomatoes. Scool out the seeds and drain. Sprinkle the inside with salt and pepper, and drein a raw egg without breaking; april others the medium. To get the per- kle on a little more pepper and a adopt the low Lust corset and to pan a little distance apart. Bake it wear with it a brassiere. The bras a hot oven until the egg is set, which

Stew three cups of cranberries with Cream one-half cup of butter with long stays which have been the joke ter, add one-half cup of milk, two well-beaten eggs, one level tablespoon edge of steel, gold or jet beads, is one white satin could easily be duplicated of the favorite slipper trimmings, the at home. The slipper of clack satin, is further accentuated by the fact namon and allspice, mixed, and two crosspiece being covered with several with a small oval buckle covered with that they have practically no bones, cups of flour. Bake in a shallow tablespoonfuls of melted butter and made they were thought to be entire, with a pinch of salt. Pour into a ly inadeuate to the needs of the stout small baking tin that has been lined These bows are made of double pieces of satin, stitched and turned.

IF YOU WOULD HAVE A COMFORTABLE CORSET woman, but today the tricot corset is with pastry. Bake in a hot oven successfully worn in all sies.

For those who cannot rely upon nasquares.—Ladies' Home Journal. woman, but today the tricot corset is with pastry. Bake in a hot oven until ready and serve hot or cold, cut in small end, clean out the seeds and fill them; bake them until the peppers A roast of yeal will be greatly im- are soft, but not until they lose their

BEEF, VEAL OR MUTTON CURRY. Cut two pounds of lean meat into Never try to clean yokes, collars or squares. Place in the stewpan three tablespoons of enopped onion, ounce of butter, stirring the ingredients over the fire until all are slightly browned. A tablespoon of curry powder, half that quantity of flour and a pint of water must be added, and when the mixture has boiled up it is then ready to receive the meat. The contents should then be allowed to To clean ribbons sponge with alco- stew over a slow fire for an hour and straight. When clean rinse in alco- A muff novelty is made of ostrich match are made for the neck.